

Public Speaking

---

The ability to speak well, whether in social or business settings is a critical ingredient for success in today's world. Take your personal life or professional career to the next level! Learn skills that will improve your ability to project confidence and energy in all of your social or professional interactions and presentations.

This course takes people with normal public speaking fears and turns them into skilled presenters.

VMB 104 Public Speaking Basics    $50

Mon 6:45-9:45pm

June 15

Learn skills that will improve your ability to project confidence and energy in all of your social or professional interactions and presentations. This course takes people with normal public speaking fears and turns them into skilled presenters.

In this one day workshop, you will learn basic techniques to overcome anxieties of public speaking and deliver powerful presentations.