Dear College Now / Future Ready Colleagues,

On May 9, 2024, Kingsborough Community College will be hosting the 3rd annual College Now Career Conference from 10:00am – 2:00pm on our beautiful campus. The conference is designed to expose high school students to various career opportunities in the health, computer science, education, culinary and business fields, as well as to provide them with information about college admissions.

The conference will feature interactive workshops led by professionals and faculty members from the different disciplines being highlighted.

Students will also have the opportunity to tour the campus and learn about the facilities and resources available at Kingsborough Community College. Continental Breakfast and Lunch will be provided for all participants.

Further details regarding the College Now Career Conference will be forwarded to you shortly. Included is the flyer for the event with a link for you to register for this exciting event. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out.

We look forward to seeing you and your students on May 9th for this informative conference.

Sincerely,

Erika Delacruz, Maura Wynne and Talia Cook
