

Wireless Use Policy

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to regulate wireless network access (i.e. KBCCStaff, KBCCStudents, KBCCGuests) on the Campus's IT Resources.

Scope

This IT policy, and all policies referenced herein, shall apply to all members of the Campus community including faculty, students, administrative officials, staff, alumni, authorized guests, delegates, and independent contractors (the "User(s)" or "you") who use, access, or otherwise employ, locally or remotely, the Campus's IT Resources, whether individually controlled, shared, stand-alone, or networked.

Policy Statement

- User authentication is required before accessing the Kingsborough Wireless network.
- The Campus monitors the wireless network for interfering devices to ensure reliable access.
- The Campus reserves the right to restrict/remove device access to the wireless network to prevent Users from infecting, degrading, or otherwise negatively impacting IT resources.
- Users must not install a personal wireless access point or any other device that interferes with wireless IT Resources.
- Should any such device be detected, the Campus reserves the right to shut down the device,
- the Campus notifies the User, and the User is then required to remove the device,

Definitions

IT Resources include computing, networking, communications, application, and telecommunications systems, infrastructure, hardware, software, data, databases, personnel, procedures, physical facilities, cloud-based vendors, Software as a Service (SaaS) vendors, and any related materials and services.

Wireless access point is a networking device that allows wireless devices to connect to a wired network.

Policy Disclaimer Statement

Deviations from policies, procedures, or guidelines published and approved by the Office of Information Technology Service (OITS) may only be done cooperatively between the OITS and the requesting entity with sufficient time to allow for appropriate risk analysis, documentation, and possible presentation to authorized Campus representatives. Willful failure to adhere to written policies may be met with Campus sanctions.
