

SPRING 2009 NURSING 19 STUDENTS

Congratulations on your achievements thus far in nursing.

MINI 1 SECTIONS D 01A, D 02A, D 03A, D 04A,

MINI 2 SECTIONS D 05A, D06A, D 07A, D 08A

Classes start on Tuesdays from 11.30am – 2.50 pm and Thursdays from 1.50pm -4pm
CAMPUS LAB is on Thursdays from 8:00A –12:30 PM ON DESIGNATED DATES

- o NO Classes 9/28 and 10/12; Tuesday 10/13 is a MONDAY schedule

CLINICALS are from 8 to 4 pm and 4 to 12pm on Mondays, and Wednesdays:

Clinical sites are: Brooklyn Hospital and Maimonides Medical Center, and Kings County

Please bear this in mind when planning your work schedules and when choosing other courses.

The first day of class is Thursday 9/10/09

TEXTBOOK: Lowdermilk, Deitra an Perry, Shannon E. (2006) Maternity Nursing: St. Louis: T he C.V. Mosby Co., 7th edition LWW, Philadelphia.

Read the first 17 chapters before classes begin.

The Syllabus is on the Nursing dept website also make sure that you have the following nursing 19 handouts available with you on the first day of class:

- Nursing Assessment Newborn
- Antepartal Client Assessment Guide
- Family-Centered Maternity Nursing
- Summary Guide to Nursing Care in Labor
- Nursing Assessment Intrapartum
- Nursing Assessment Postpartum
- Student Guide for Ante-Partal Clinic Experience
- N19 L & D Worksheet

Please make sure you filed your degree applications for January 2010. Make certain that you have completed the program AND college requirements such as:

- Psychology 11, 32
- English 12, 22, or 24
- Sociology 31
- CPI Requirements(College Preparatory Initiative)
- CPE Requirements (CUNY Proficiency Examination)

*Refer to the College Catalog for degree requirements

* The course syllabus is on the Nursing department website;

www.kbcc.cuny.edu/department/nursing department/courses/syllabus.

