

KCC Reads event:

Can music express what words fail
to articulate?

Join us at a Get-Together
for the Kingsborough Community:
U218, Monday, November 20, at 3 PM

Composer Eleanor Cory
(talk and demonstration)

“Three Pieces About World War II: Arnold Schoenberg’s ‘A Survivor from Warsaw,’ Krzysztof Penderecki’s ‘Threnody to the Victims of Hiroshima,’ and Steve Reich’s ‘Different Trains.’”

Eleanor will have a piano at her disposal and will talk about the pieces above and the definition of music when it crosses the line between entertainment and political statement.

Light refreshment, we hope!

KCC Reads: An Inquiry into Genocide - Why Do We Kill Each Other?