

KINGSBOROUGH
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Do you want to combine your pursuit of a college education with the potential for a paid position with a local company that provides the opportunity for career growth and advancement?

Consider applying to Kingsborough Community College and joining the Customer Experience Management (CXM) Academy with National Grid as the anchor partner.

You'll be in a guided pathway to employment with extensive academic and career support and could be afforded the opportunity to work in customer service with our anchor partner, National Grid, or with one of our other 10 committed business/industry partners.
