Is your household income less than $52,400* a year?

Chances are you qualify for the Essential Plan from UnitedHealthcare Community Plan.

Apply for free or low-cost health insurance today.

The Essential Plan offered through NY State of Health is for lower income families in NY who don’t qualify for Medicaid or Child Health Plus. There are several Essential Plan types with certain income, or citizenship status requirements. We can help you determine which plan type is best for you. We’d be proud to have you as a member of UnitedHealthcare Community Plan.

Benefits include:

- You can get reimbursed up to $400 per plan year. That’s $200 for each six-month enrollment period when you attend the gym at least 50 times.
- Option to buy dental and vision coverage.
- No open enrollment period. Enroll at any time.
- Premiums could be as low as 0 or $20 a month

UHCCommunityPlan.com/Essential

1-866-265-1893, TTY 711

PEARL BODANSKY
Marketplace Facilitated Enroller
(917) 816-0275

* Based on a four-person household level for a New York resident for 2020

© 2020 United Healthcare Services, Inc. All rights reserved.

UnitedHealthcare
Community Plan
What's the minimum income needed for a $52,400 Essentail Plan?

NY State of Health: The Official Health Plan
Qualified Health Plans
Essential Plan
Managed Care

NY State of Health and Child Health Plus.
Medicaid Managed Care.

UHCCommunityPlan.com/Essential
1-866-265-1893, TTY 711

PEARL BODANSKY
Marketplace Facilitated Enroller
(917) 816-0275