Greetings from the President

Dr. Claudia V. Schrader

Congratulations on your graduation, Class of 2021!

Today, we salute you for earning your academic degree during one of the most challenging times in our world's history. We commend your resilience and determination to achieve this outstanding accomplishment. CUNY Chancellor Félix V. Matos Rodríguez, KCC alumna and Commencement Keynote Speaker Dr. Nancy Lee Sánchez and other friends of KCC join us in sharing best wishes with you on our Graduate Salute webpage and on our social media channels @CUNYkcc.

Special congratulations to our Honorary Doctorate recipient, the one and only Chris Rock! He is my favorite comedian and an incredible actor, and we're glad that Kingsborough has been part of his educational journey.

Graduates, as you celebrate this joyous occasion with your family and friends, please share photos using the hashtags #KCCGrad2021 and #CUNY2021.

Again, congratulations on graduating. We salute you and the bright future ahead of you.

Commencement Speaker

Nancy Lee Sánchez, Ed.D

Nancy Lee Sánchez is the executive director for the Kaplan Educational Foundation. In her role, Sánchez serves as a strategic partner and advisor to the Kaplan Educational Foundation Board of Directors, while managing the Kaplan Leadership Program's rigorous recruitment, academic, advisement, leadership and scholarship components. Author of "Your Guide to College Transfer" and a regular contributor to Forbes, Sánchez is one of the industry's leading voices on community college to four-year transfer.

Sánchez has over 20 years of expertise providing greater access to higher education, improving the college experience, and supporting leadership among low-income, under-represented and nontraditional students through collaborative partnerships and services that directly target factors affecting degree-attainment gaps.

She has been invited to speak at the United Nations and the Aspen Institute on the subject of expanding the community college talent pipeline. Her work has been featured in Inside Higher Ed, the Daily News, DIVERSE Issues in Higher Education, the Hechinger Report and PBSNewshour.

Sánchez's own educational journey started at Kingsborough Community College, where she earned an associate degree in early childhood education. She went on to earn a bachelor's degree in education from Long Island University, a master's in sociology from Brooklyn College, and recently earned a doctorate in Educational Leadership and Innovation at New York University.

A 2014 National Hispanic Executive Leadership Fellow, she completed an Executive Leadership Program at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government and a Leadership Development Program at the Center for Creative Leadership. Born in Las Piedras, Puerto Rico, she currently resides in Brooklyn.

Class of 2021 Valedictorian

Allan Santana

MAJOR: BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Like many highly motivated students, Allan Santana found himself financially locked out of most 4-year colleges. An alumnus of the renowned Prep for Prep program, he had expected to move on with his classmates to such institutions as Princeton and the University of Chicago. Rather than feel defeated, he forged his own path at Kingsborough Community College, learning an important lesson along the way: Life is what you make of it.

Santana took advantage of all that KCC had to offer. Highlights of his career at Kingsborough include joining the Honors Program; becoming a Presidential Scholar; serving as treasurer of both the school paper, Scepter, and the Honors Club; and qualifying to join the Phi Theta Kappa International Honors Society, where he rose to vice president of leadership of KCC's Xi Kappa Chapter.

Today, the business administration major is graduating with a perfect 4.0 GPA. In the fall, he will attend Lehigh University, which coincidentally had rejected him when he applied in high school. "What felt was a misstep in my life turned into an opportunity to propel myself further than I could ever have imagined."

Greetings from the Faculty

Dr. Cindy Greenberg

SPEECH PROGRAM, DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS AND PERFORMING ARTS

Dr. Cindy Greenberg has a unique background in that all her degrees (B.A., Masters and PhD) are in linguistics. While studying many languages for her degrees, she taught adult ESL (English as a Second Language) students, as well as theoretical introductory linguistics courses at Queens College, CUNY.

She has been a full-time faculty member of Kingsborough Community College since receiving her PhD degree in linguistics from the CUNY Graduate Center in 1987. She founded the major in Speech Communication in fall 2005 and served as the program's director for many years.

Dr. Greenberg is a founding member of CUNY CLASP (CUNY League of Active Speech Professors). She has spoken at regional, state and national conferences on a wide-variety of topics including adult literacy, second language phonology, accent reduction and Blackboard technology and has written on an array of topics including Service-Learning, curriculum design and second language acquisition.

When not teaching, she enjoys hiking with her family, power-walking with her husband, reading and quilting. On behalf of the KCC faculty, she is honored to bring greetings to the graduating class of 2021.
