Orders should be finalized at least 3 full business days in advance. Any substitution to the menu is considered a customized menu and may result in a higher charge. Please speak with Metropolitan’s Catering Department if you wish to make changes to a catering package. Any event beginning after normal business hours may incur a late night- after hours setup charge.

If you wish to discuss additional menu options, please feel free to contact our Catering Department on extension 5959.

Please note that this Catering Guide is for Kingsborough Community College Students, Student Group and Student Organization ONLY.

Preparing Your Food Order Form

When preparing an order, please print and complete a KCC Food Order Form for Students which is located on the Events Management webpage on the college website. Be sure to include pricing for all items being purchased on the form. The form must be signed by the President or Treasurer of your club, your Faculty Advisor, and the Director of Student Life. The form will then be sent to the KCC Association Office (room A209) and then the Events Management Office (V114). Once your order is approved it will be forwarded to Metropolitan Food Services.

As you can see this is a lengthy process so please create your food order at least five (5) business days in advance. Food Orders must be received by Metropolitan at least three (3) business days in advance of your event.

Paying for Your Order:

Immediately following your event, your club will be invoiced by Metropolitan Food Services. Invoices should be processed for payment within 30 days of your event.

Cancellation:

Cancellations must be made directly with Metropolitan Food Services (ext. 5959) 48 hours in advance of your event. Cancellations made 24 hours or fewer, prior to the function will be charged the full amount.
