Frequently Asked Questions

When do I start paying back my student loans?

If you’re attending school at least half-time, you have a period of time after you graduate, leave school, or drop below half-time status before you must begin repayment. This period of time is called a "grace-period". The grace period for a Stafford Loans is six months.

- Subsidized loan - during the grace period, you don’t have to pay any principal and you won’t be charged interest.
- Unsubsidized loan - you don’t have to pay any principal, but you will be charged interest. You can either pay interest as you go along or it will be capitalized later.

How can I check the status of my student loans?

You should contact the holder of your loan. If you don’t know who holds your loan, you can use our Web site (www.nslds.ed.gov) to find out about your federal student loans. The site displays information on loan and/or federal grant amounts, outstanding balances, loan statuses, and disbursements. To use the NSLDS Student Access Web site, you will need to provide your Social Security Number, the first two letters of your last name, your date of birth, and your PIN.

What is the interest rate?

What if I can’t make my payments?

There are two options for postponing repayment - Deferment and Forbearance. Receiving deferment or forbearance is not automatic. You must apply for it. You must continue making payments on your loan until your deferment or forbearance has been granted.

Can I cancel my student loan if I change my mind, even if I’ve signed the promissory note agreeing to the loan’s terms?

Yes, Your school must notify you in writing whenever it credits your account with your loan funds. You may cancel all or a portion of your loan if you inform your school within 14 days after the date your school sends you this notice, or by the first day of the payment period, whichever is later. (Your school can tell you the first day of your payment period.) If you receive your loan funds directly by check you may refuse the funds by returning the check to the school.
