

Networking Events Outside KCC

- Employment and Career Opportunities

<http://kbcc.cuny.edu/academicdepartments/alliedhealth/mentalhealth/careeropportunities.html>

Professional networking events occur at the annual conferences of the major social work, counseling and psychology associations in the employment and career opportunities page. Explore local and regional networking events scheduled by local government and nonprofit agencies.

- NYS Department of Labor Career Center Events & Recruitments

<https://statistics.labor.ny.gov/career-zone/career-calendar.shtml>

New York's State Career Centers provide a wide range of services, including classes, workshops, job fairs, and job clubs featuring both virtual career fairs and online workshops. They also host informational sessions on various topics and organize recruitment opportunities with numerous companies.

- Jobs NYC Events

<https://www.nyc.gov/employment/events>

The NYC job events page highlights a variety of networking opportunities such as hiring halls, career fairs, and info sessions where job seekers can connect directly with employers and recruiters. Many events feature multiple companies actively hiring which provides attendees the chance to build relationships and secure interviews.

- AHRC NYC

<https://www.ahrcnyc.org/involved/internships/>

The AHRC New York City has internships for students to gain hands on experience working with individuals with developmental disabilities. These internships offer training, supervision, and skill building to help prepare for careers in healthcare, social work, and related fields.

- Silberman Aging

<https://silbermanaging.org/alliance/>

The Silberman Aging Alliance brings together students and organizations focused on aging to share knowledge and address issues affecting older adults especially in marginalized communities. There is also an annual Silberman Aging Conference that occurs in the spring time that is a full-day community-based event. It includes networking opportunities and a selection of presentations and workshops from a range of stakeholders in the field of aging.

