RE: Change in Course Title and Description – THA 4100 – Production Practicum

The Department of Communications and Performing Arts is proposing a change in course title and description for THA 4100 – Production Practicum.

Change Course Title:

FROM:

Production Practicum.

TO:

Production Practicum Series

Change Course Description:

FROM:

This practice-based course provides students with hand-on experience working onstage as a performer for live theatrical productions. Working within an ensemble of student and faculty theatre artists, students will practice and execute the theatre skills associated with acting, singing, dance and other modes of theatre performance. This course may be repeated ~~three~~ times for a total of ~~three (3)~~ credits.

TO:

This practice-based course provides students with hand-on experience working onstage as a performer for live theatrical productions. Working within an ensemble of student and faculty theatre artists, students will practice and execute the theatre skills associated with acting, singing, dance and other modes of theatre performance. This course may be repeated five times for a total of five (5) credits.

Rationale for Change:

Title:

The change in course title more accurately reflects that students can, and are required to, take the course multiple times in order to graduate.

Description:

Based on numbers pulled from the Registrar’s Office and Academic Scheduling, recent history shows that students have repeated the course up to five times through waivers and independent studies. Changing the number of times permitted for students to take the course will eliminate the need for waivers, independent studies, and course substitutions. Under the AS Theatre Arts this course is required for both concentrations and is an option for students to take to fulfill the six credits of program electives required for the degree.
