RE: Change in Course Title and Description for History 1200: American Civilization II

The Department of History, Philosophy and Political Science is proposing a change in Course Title and Description for History 1200: American Civilization II:

Title:

FROM:

American Civilization II

TO:

U.S. History II: from Post-Civil War to the Present

Description:

FROM:

American people from the Civil War to the present includes: reuniting the country after the Civil War the role of Blacks in American society, growth of American business, immigration, the rise of the United States as a world power, and American Society in the 20th century.

TO:

This class introduces students to fundamental challenges the U.S. faced after the Civil War, such as integrating four million formerly enslaved people during Reconstruction; deciding which groups should be allowed in as immigrants; relating as a more powerful nation to the rest of the world; responding to economic crises like the Great Depression; adapting to urbanization and suburbanization; addressing political polarization; and responding to demands for greater rights from workers, people of color, women, and other disenfranchised groups

Rationale for Change:

We are in the process of changing all titles from America to United States which is consistent with current practices and pathways. We added events to guide the students in understanding the content of the course. The description of the course was changed because the old description had out of date references, and we wanted to add topics and the language and make the language more specific to capture student interests.
