

College Now Program at Brooklyn College

POSITION: College preparatory course instructor

College Now at Brooklyn College is seeking an instructor to teach a Spring 2020 section of its College Preparatory course for 9th graders.

College Now is a collaborative program of the City University of New York and the New York City Department of Education. Its primary goals are to improve the academic achievement of the city's public high school students and to ensure that graduating students are ready to do college-level work. College Now at Brooklyn College is committed to providing high quality educational opportunities for students at the college and in the high schools.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Undergraduate degree in content related field completed. Completed or in-progress graduate degree preferred.
- Experience teaching or tutoring college or high school students to support development of college reading, writing and study skills
- Strong understanding of the college search, financial aid and application processes
- Strong classroom management style and facility within a variety of teaching approaches
- Must be available to teach Thursday afternoons from March 12-June 18 from 3:15-5:15 pm at a high school complex in Crown Heights, Brooklyn
- Must be available to participate in one Saturday event at Brooklyn College (date TBA)
- Must be available to participate in one evening event at Brooklyn College in June (date TBA)

COMPENSATION: 40 hrs. per semester at $65 hourly (instruction)
and 15 hrs. per semester at $39 hourly (professional development)

Please e-mail a cover letter and resume to: pieronip@brooklyn.cuny.edu

Pieranna Pieroni

Director of College Now

Brooklyn College- CUNY

2900 Bedford Avenue

Brooklyn, N.Y. 11210