The CareerReady WLG creates a true year-round program where youth strengthen work readiness skills, explore careers, and receive academic support, including opportunities to earn college credits and inform plans for postsecondary education. The CareerReady WLG program will offer college level courses via Kingsborough Community College, a CUNY institution. The courses will be credit bearing and available for youth on track to graduate. Academic instruction will be combined with DYCD provider operated college and career exploration activities, and internships.
